SANJANA JOSHI

STUDENT

PROFILE

My aim is to gain as much experience as I can, in the field of IT, along with contributing the knowledge I've learnt so far, in order to complete tasks at hand with perfection and passion. Working in a team will be a good way to expand the horizons of my contacts, along with learning a whole bunch of new things from other team members. Learning what comes my way is an ability that I want to put to use, along with applying the things learnt, for the delivery of a better result each time.
